The Course followed by a bill from the time of Introduction in the Legislature until it becomes a law, is indicated below:

IN SENATE.

1. Introduction and Reference to Committee.
2. Referred to Committee of the Whole on report from Committee.
3. Ordered to Third Reading and referred to Committee on Revision.
4. Passed and transmitted to the Assembly for action by that house.
5. Transmitted to Governor or to the Mayor, if a city bill.

IN ASSEMBLY.

1. Introduction and Reference to Committee.
2. Ordered to Second Reading on report from Committee.
3. Ordered to Third Reading and referred to Committee on Revision.
4. Passed and transmitted to Senate for action by that house.
5. Transmitted to Governor or to the Mayor, if a city bill.

When a bill is introduced in the Senate or Assembly it is referred to the standing committee appointed to consider that particular subject of legislation. It is printed before it is considered by the committee. When a bill is reported by the committee, either favorably or for the consideration of the house, it is referred to the Committee of the Whole in the Senate. After consideration by the Committee of the Whole it is advanced to a third reading, then revised as to language and form by the Revision Committee, after which it is engrossed and ready for final passage. The procedure is the same in the Assembly upon the introduction of a bill except that an order of business known as "Second Reading" has been substituted for the Committee of the Whole. A bill, passing the Senate or Assembly, goes to the other branch of the legislature, as the case may be, and takes the same course in that branch as though it originated there, unless it is substituted for an identical bill introduced and already on the calendar of that house.

A bill may be reported by a committee either favorably, adversely or for the consideration of the house. If reported favorably or for consideration it advances to the next order of business. If reported adversely the house to which it is reported must agree to the report, which kills the bill, or it may disagree with the report and order the bill to the next order of business. A committee may be ordered to report a bill by the vote of the house. A bill usually is amended in committee, in the Committee of the Whole of the Senate or on the order of Second Reading in the Assembly, although it may be amended on the order of final passage. A Senate bill may be amended in the Assembly, after it has passed the Senate, and vice versa. Such amendments must be concurred in by the house in which the bill originated, before the bill can be transmitted to the Governor, or to the Mayor, as the case may be. The Committee on Revision may amend a bill only as to its grammatical and legal form. A bill must be reprinted each time it is amended and it can not be passed in final form, in either house, unless it has been upon the desks of the members for three legislative days, unless an emergency message from the Governor certifies to the necessity of immediate passage, as provided in the Constitution. Bills may be reported by a committee, with amendments, for reprinting and recommittal for further consideration.

Any member may introduce a bill and any one interested, either personally or through his attorney, is accorded a hearing before the committee to which the bill is referred.

During the last ten days of the session the work of the Assembly committees is taken in charge by the Committee on Rules, which makes up the calendars of the Assembly for the balance of the session. In the Senate the committees have charge of all bills up to the close of the session. The Committee on Rules has power to take a bill from a committee and place it immediately upon the order of final passage. It may also amend a bill in any particular.

Concurrent Resolutions, proposing amendment to the Constitution, which must be submitted to popular vote, are sent to the Secretary of State and do not require any action on the part of the Governor.

A bill may be progressed without regard to the regular order in either house, by unanimous consent or by a suspension of the rules, up to the point of final passage.

During the session of the legislature the Governor has ten days in which to approve or veto a bill. If he does not take action within that time the bill becomes a law. If vetoed, the bill may be passed over his veto by a two-thirds vote of the legislature. All bills passed during the last ten days of the session are treated as thirty-day bills and the Governor has thirty calendar days, after the legislature adjourns, within which to act. All bills not signed by the Governor during that period are dead.

A bill affecting the interests of a city must be sent to the Mayor for approval by the city authorities. The bill must be returned within fifteen days. If returned without approval it may be re-passed in the legislature by a majority vote of each house. Bills returned by the Mayor, without approval, after the adjournment of the legislature, are dead.

Mar. 4. In Senate. Assembly amendments concurred in.

By Senator Griffin. Whereas, It is manifest that the transit facilities of the city of New York, in all its boroughs, are wholly inadequate and have not been improved to keep pace with the growth of the population, in consequence whereof there exists a disgraceful condition of congestion on subway, surface and elevated lines, and

Whereas, The existing corporations, which have been entrusted with the control of transit operation have utterly failed to extend or even improve the roads under their control to meet the needs of the constantly increasing population, and

Whereas, Since the opening of the existing subway in 1904, the question of increasing rapid transit facilities has been the subject of continual agitation, and

Whereas, During all of these eight years, plan after plan has been taken up, considered and set aside, and

Whereas, The settlement of the guestion now seems as remote as it was in 1904, and

Whereas, The people of the city of New York, have heretofore, and in many ways, expressed their conviction that all rapid transit routes should be constructed and operated by the municipality, and

Whereas, To this end, the public service commission, at an expense of upwards of $500,000, prepared plans for a rapid transit system, commonly called the "Tri-Borough," and

Whereas, Before the city of New York was permitted to proceed with the work of construction, persistent representations emanating from certain sources antagonistic to municipal construction and operation, were made, and rumors circulated, that the city of New York could not enter into contracts for the construction of said route for the reason that the city's debt incurring capacity was exhausted, and

Whereas, To determine this initial question the matter was submitted to the Appellate Division of the First Department, which tribunal on October 22, 1909, in amending and confirming the report of Benjamin F. Tracy, decided that the city had a borrowing capacity of $54,759,646, and

Whereas, To further enhance the city's ability to incur indebtedness for the purpose of building rapid transit routes, a constitutional amendment was submitted to, and adopted by, the people of the state of New York at the election in November, 1909, excluding self-retiring dock and traction bonds from the computation of the city's debt, thereby increasing the city's borrowing capacity about $125,000,000; thus making the total borrowing capacity of the city of New York at that time (November 1909) upwards of $180,000,000, and

Whereas, Successive increases in the tax valuations of the city of New York, to wit: 1909, $84,763,915; 1910, $237,012,970, and 1911, $987,048,693 show an increase of valuation of $1,218,825,578; thus giving a further borrowing capacity of $121,882,557, and making the apparent total borrowing capacity of the city of New York at the present time over $300,000,000, and

Whereas, If, as it is urged, this enormous margin has been depleted, then it is manifest that debts have been incurred of such staggering extent as to entitle the people of the city of New York to know, in the first place, what they were, and in the second place, why such expenditures were incurred in preference to the furnishing of rapid transit facilities for which the people had practically twice voted and which they had the right to consider, and to consider as of paramount importance,

Therefore be it resolved, That a joint committee of three Senators, to be appointed by the president of the Senate, and five members of the Assembly, to be appointed by the speaker of the Assembly, is hereby constituted and appointed a legislative committee to investigate and inquire into the transit situation in the city of New York; the question of the efficiency and sufficiency of existing transit facilities; the question of the debt margin in the city of New York, how it stands in relation to the question of the municipal construction and operation of new subways; how far, and in what direction, said subways and transit lines are needed; why those already designed are not undertaken; the relation of the public service commission to the subject; also how far the powers of said commission extend and their relation to the board of estimate and apportionment and to the mayor of the city, and that said committee make reports to the legislature of the state of New York from time to time with such recommendations and suggestions respecting legislation as it deems appropriate and that the committee shall make its final report and recommendations to the legislature on or before February 1, 1913. Such committee shall elect its chairman and vice-chairman and shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses, including public officers and employees, and the production of books and papers, including public records and documents; to administer oaths, take proof and testimony, employ counsel and expert witnesses, stenographers and other assistants, to sit anywhere within the state of New York, and shall have all the powers usual and necessary in cases of legislative committees, including the adoption of rules for the conduct of its proceedings,

That the actual and necessary expenses of the committee in carrying out the provisions of this resolution, not exceeding the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) be paid from the moneys appropriated for the contingent expenses of the Legislature by the treasurer on the warrant of the comptroller and the certificate of the chairman of the committee.

state, be continued and, in addition to the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties heretofore conferred and imposed upon it, be authorized and directed to investigate the subject of forestration, the culture and care of trees and shrubs, the erection and conservation of forests and waters and the development and utilization of waste and abandoned lands and to report its conclusions and proposed enactments to the legislature of 1913, $30,000 being appropriated for the purposes thereof.

By Senator Brackett. That Congress of the United States be and it is hereby requested to make suitable and proper provision for the improvement of the inlet of Lake Champlain from the so-called harbor lines at or near the southerly boundary line of the village of Whitehall, or the point at which the jurisdiction of this State end, to Lake Champlain proper, to the end that said inlet shall be of the same dimensions of the Champlain canal as the same is proposed to be improved under the provisions of chapter 147 of the Laws of 1903 and suitable and proper for the navigation of craft plying said improved Champlain canal when the same shall be completed.

Mar. 11. Tabled.

By Senator Travis. That the Senate respectfully request the President of the United States, the Secretary of the Navy and the Representatives in Congress from this State to use their influence to the end that one of the new battleships, authorized by the Sixty-second Congress, be built at the Navy Yard owned by the United States in the borough of Brooklyn, city of New York.

Mar. 13. Adopted.

By Senator Stilwell. Whereas, prior to the adoption of the Constitution of 1894, the Justices of the Supreme Court in each Judicial Department were empowered by law to fix the times and places for holding trial terms of said court and to designate the Justices who should hold the same; and

Whereas, it was provided in the said Constitution of 1894 that the power to make such designations should be exercised by the several Appellate Divisions of said Departments; and

Whereas, there arose throughout the State general dissatisfaction with the system of having these designations made by the Appellate Division, which resulted in 1904, in the adoption by the people of a Constitutional Amendment by which this power was revoked and taken away from the Appellate Divisions; and

Whereas, the Legislature in the General Judiciary Act has seemingly overlooked this Constitutional command and continued the power of the Appellate Division in regard thereto; and

Whereas, the said system continues to create dissatisfaction among the members of the Bench and Bar, as well as among litigants and parties and has given rise to complaints; and

Whereas, the Appellate Division of the First Judicial Department has undertaken to make rules and regulations for the conduct of the business of the Courts, which on their face, seem to clearly contravene the laws of the State;

Be it resolved by the Senate:

That the standing committee of the Senate on Codes be directed to investigate the method of fixing the times and places of holding trial terms of the Supreme Court and of designating the Justices to hold said terms, and also that the said committee investigate the rules adopted by the said Appellate Division of the First Judicial Department to the end that any abuses which now exist in making said designation and rules may be abolished and proper legislation in regard to the said matters may be adopted. For the purpose of this investigation the said committee may send for persons and papers and take evidence in any part of the State. The said Committee shall report to the Legislature not later than January 31, 1913.

The Comptroller is authorized to pay to the Chairman of the Committee, from the moneys appropriated for the contingent expenses of the Legislature, a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars for the actual and necessary expenses of the Committee in carrying out the provisions of this resolution, on the certificate of the Committee.

By Senator Burd. Whereas An Act constituting chapter 355 of the Laws of 1907 provides among other things that certain persons therein named shall be a corporation to be designated as the "Long Sault Development Company"; and

Whereas, such Act further purports to convey to said corporation valuable and exclusive privileges and rights, and directs the conveyances to said corporation of certain lands belonging to the state under the waters of the St. Lawrence river and referred to in said Act; and

Whereas, It is claimed that said corporation is proceeding under such act to acquire private lands, and to secure the consent of the governments of the United States, and of the Dominion of Canada, confirming said Act and the privileges assumed to be granted thereby; and

Whereas, It is further claimed that such Act is unconstitutional in that it assumes to convey exclusive rights and privileges by special enactment, and further assumes to convey a portion of the forest preserve of the state which by the constitution is made inalienable on the part of the state; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Attorney-General of the State is hereby requested to transmit to the Senate for its further consideration his written opinion as to whether such Act as aforesaid contravenes the constitution of the state in any of the matters herein referred to, or in any other particulars; and if in his judgment it does, what if any present action or proceedings may be brought by the state to ascertain judicially such fact; and that such written opinion be ready for submission on the reconvening of the Senate in the year 1913, or at any time prior thereto if the same shall be convened in extraordinary session and prepared to receive the same.

By Mr. Cuvillier. Whereas, Postmaster-General Hitchcock desires to recommend to Congress this session a plan for acquiring the telegraph lines by the government, to be operated as a part of the postal system, and

Whereas, Section 5267 of the Revised United States statutes prescribes method whereby the government may for postal, military or other purposes, purchase telegraph lines operating in the United States at an appraised value, and

Whereas, There is a monopoly now existing in the United States of the telegraph business consisting of two companies, to wit: Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, and the prohibitory rates charged by said companies is a deterrent to the commercial development of many sections of the United States and its colonies; in approximately fifty countries of the world, notably in Great Britain, France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Spain, Russia and Japan, government controlled telegraphs now are in successful and profitable operation; in many of the countries, they are operated in connection with the postal service; these telegraphs serve an aggregate population of 950,000,000, and in every instance they have been found to be of immense practical benefit to the people, in both promptitude and cost of service,

Be it Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the sense of the legislature of the state of New York that this government should acquire the existing telegraph companies, now operating in the United States, for the beenfit of all the people, so that the rates may be reduced in accordance with the postal service now successfully conducted by the United States government, and

Be it Further Resolved, That the members of Congress from the state of New York be, and they are hereby respectfully requested to use their best efforts in this direction, and

Be it Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to each member of Congress from the state of New York, the President of the United States, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Feb. 5. Com. on Ways and Means.

By Mr. Murray. Whereas, Pursuant to the provisions of section 30 of chapter 4, Laws of 1891, entitled "An act to provide for rapid transit railways in cities over 1,000,000 inhabitants," and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, the public service commission is authorized and empowered to maintain and operate rapid transit railroads in the city of New York whenever in the opinion of the board of estimate and apportionment of such city either a contract for equipment, maintenance and operation, or a contract for maintenance and operation, would be inexpedient or prejudicial to the public interest; and

Whereas, The public service commission has laid out and adopted routes for a rapid transit railroad system in said city independent of the existing system, to be constructed at the public expense, and has transmitted and is continuing to transmit to the board of estimate and apportionment of said city contracts for the construction of said railroad for the approval of said board and the appropriation of the money necessary to carry them into effect; and

Whereas, A radical difference of opinion has arisen in the minds of the people affected by this vitally needed public improvement upon the question whether such railroad system, when constructed, shall be operated by private corporations for their profit or by the municipality in the public interest; and

Whereas, The determination of the question necessarily affects the future of all rapid transit development in the city of New York for at least fifty years to come, and is therefore of supreme importance to the city, its business interests and inhabitants taxed to pay the cost of this great public improvement,

Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That a special election shall be held in the city of New York on the first Tuesday in April, 1912, in the manner provided by law, at which special election there shall be submitted to the vote of the qualified electors of the city the question whether the railroads under construction by the city at the public expense, and railroads hereafter acquired by the city, and railroads hereafter constructed by the city at the public expense shall be operated by the public service commission for the city, and to that end it shall be the duty of the board of elections of the city of New York to prepare, print and supply to such electors at such election ballots containing two columns, each with a voting circle, above which circle in one column shall be printed "For municipal operation of rapid transit road," and above the circle in the other column of which shall be printed the words "Against municipal operation of rapid transit road." The provisions of chapter 680 of the laws of 1892, entitled "An act in relation to the elections, constituting chapter 6 of the general laws," and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto shall apply to the conduct of said special election as far as the nature of the case may allow. Upon the canvass of such votes by the board of city canvassers, it shall be the duty of said board to file with the board of estimate and apportionment of the city of New York a statement which shall declare the total number of votes cast in said city "For municipal operation of rapid transit road," and the total number so cast "Against municipal operation of rapid transit road."

By Mr. Kopp. That the committee of privileges and elections be directed to carefully inquire into the question of inaccurate election returns in the county of New York and elsewhere and determine, if possible, the reasons therefor and the remedy; and for that purpose that the said committee be instructed to examine the original inspectors returns and tally sheets in the county of New York and elsewhere or so many of them as they may deem necessary, and also in connection therewith the register of voters, the poll clerks' books, the ballot clerks' statements and, if necessary, the voted ballots including those returned to the ballot box and those returned as void and protested, and the unvoted ballots and all other papers, books and documents used at the general election held in November, 1911, or so much of them as the committee shall deem necessary.

That the said committee report its findings and conclusions and such recommendations as shall be deemed proper to this assembly, before the 15th day of March, 1912.

That the said committee have power to employ a certified public accountant and also counsel as it may deem proper and necessary.

By Mr. Cuvillier. Whereas, There exists in the State of New York, a voluntary and non-incorporated association known as the New York Fire Insurance Exchange with headquarters in the city of New York. Said Exchange, by its arbitary rules and by-laws, fixes the rate of fire insurance in the city of New York and which all fire insurance companies, doing business in the city of New York, must accept the rate so made by the New York Fire Insurance Exchange, and

Whereas, By Chapter 748 of the Laws of the State of New York, 1911, the Superintendent of Insurance of the state of New York was authorized to license all insurance agents and brokers, doing business in the state of New York, and collect the sum of ten dollars per annum as a fee or tax to be paid by the insurance broker or agent doing business, and

Whereas, Since the enactment of said law, the New York Fire Insuranc Exchange has caused to be collected and is collecting the sum of ten dollars per year from each broker and agent doing a fire insurance business within the city of New York, and on the payment of said ten dollars, as aforesaid, said New York Fire Insurance Exchange issues a certificate of authority to do fire insurance business within the city of New York, and no broker or agent can do business within the city of New York unless he procures a certificate of authority and pays the sum of ten dollars to the New York Fire Insurance Exchange, and there are ten thousand brokers doing business in the city of New York in which the New York Fire Insurance Exchange collects the sum of one hundred dollars,

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the attorney-general of the state of New York be directed to furnish an opinion to the Legislature forthwith, if said New York Fire Insurance Exchange, an unincorporated and voluntary association, is not a monopoly and an organization in restraint of trade and violating the laws of the state of New York and, if so, shouldn't said New York Fire Insurance Exchange be criminally prosecuted for the violation of the law and be compelled to refund the moneys heretofore illegally collected.

Feb. 19. Com. on Insurance.

Mar. 20. Adopted.

By Mr. Merrill. Whereas, A bill has been introduced in Congress, by the member from the Fifth Wisconsin district, Hon. Victor Berger, providing for the condemning, acquiring and operating by the United States Government, of all railroad, telegraph, telephone and express properties engaged in interstate commerce, and

Whereas, Said bill further provides for the appraisal of all such properties at their actual physical valuation by a commission of experts in the valuation of properties; provision being made for the issuance of two per cent. interest bearing bonds to be offered in exchange for the shares, bonds or other certificates of ownership of the companies owning such properties, at pro-rata value, such exchange to be based upon the actual value ascertained to be embodied in such certificates of ownership; in the event of the owners refusing to surrender such properties to the United States Government, at their appraised valuation the President is authorized to employ such means as may be necessary to take possession thereof, and

Whereas, The present owners of such means to transportation, communication and exchange no longer operate them for public use at a fair remuneration, but utilize their ownership for personal gain and aggrandizement without regard to the safety, comfort or convenience of the great mass of the population; the prohibitory rates charged by said owners is a serious determent to national development and imposes a positive hardship on the great mass of our people, who rely for service mainly on these agencies; the further reducing of operating expenses by the railroads of some ninety millions of dollors annually, secured mainly by the wholesale reduction of the operating forces, already too small; has rendered travel unsafe and hazardous in the extreme and finds its logical corollary in the annual death or injury of approximately 100,000 operatives, and

Whereas, The policy of Federal regulation or control of public utilities owned by private individuals or corporations has failed, to in any appreciable extent, mitigate these or kindred evils, or to secure to the workers a greater portion of their labors' product, which, in the words of Abraham Lincoln, "is a worthy object of any government," and

Whereas, Experience has amply demonstrated that government ownership of public utilities is the next logicial step in the course of industrial evolution, a step which has already been taken in whole or in part by many of the most powerful nations, notably Great Britain, France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Japan, Spain and Russia, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the sense of the Legislature of the state of New York that the United States Government should acquire, as speedily as possible, the existing railroad, telegraph, telephone and express properties now engaged in interstate commerce and operate the same, democratically, in the interest and for the benefit of all the people, and be it further

Resolved, That the members of Congress from the state of New York be, and they are hereby respectfully requested to use their best efforts in this direction, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to each member of Congress from the State of New York, the President of the United States, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Feb. 19. Tabled.

by the establishment and extension of useful public works and such other measures as will tend to lessen the widespread misery of the workers and those dependent on them, caused by the impotence or negligence and misrule of the irresponsible owners of the sources and means of national wealth production, and be it further

By Mr. Greenberg. Whereas, It has been the consistent policy of our government to maintain this country as a refuge for the oppressed of all nations from the evils of monarchical and tyrannical rule, and this policy has not only met with the hearty support of the people of the respective states, but has brought to our shores those immigrants who have not only added to our number and wealth, but shared with us in the development of our great country, which through their and our joint efforts has now taken its place, among the first powers of the earth and

Whereas, The Congress of the United States is now about to amend our immigrant laws with a view to further restricting immigration.

Now, Therefore, be it resolved that if the Senate concur that while realizing the need of preventing undesirable persons being added to our population, we view with great concern any change in such laws by which property, educational or religious restrictions may be enforced under any guise whatever, or distinctions made between the countries whose people are now eligible upon immigration to become citizens of this country, as such change whether through administrative measures or others in so far as it is effective is a departure from a fundamental principle of our government, and do hereby formally protest against any such change.
